WHAT YOU'LL EXPERIENCE

More Than a Sightseeing Tour

A fourteen-day expedition combining dramatic mountain passes, remote coastal driving, desert wilderness and expedition camps.

REMOTE ATLANTIC COAST

ANGOLA'S DESERT INTERIOR

01 Serra da Leba

Begin in the highlands before descending the mountain pass towards Namibe and the coast.

02 Flamingo Coast

Remote Atlantic scenery, beach driving and expedition travel south of Namibe.

03 Vanessa Shipwreck

Follow the coast into increasingly isolated country and camp near the wreck.

04 Doodsakker / Death Acre

The signature coastal crossing between dunes and the Atlantic.

05 Foz do Cunene

Explore where the Cunene River reaches the Atlantic amid dunes and desert.

06 Iona Wilderness

Travel through Angola's vast protected desert interior.

SANTA CLARA · BORDER · EXPEDITION END

Travel south through Huíla to Santa Clara, cross back into Namibia and return to Oshikango, where the expedition ends.

EXPEDITION NOTES

Remote travel requires flexibility. Timing and route sequence may be adjusted for border procedures, local access and safe passage.

EXPEDITION HIGHLIGHTS

The Journey Is Why We Go

From the Atlantic edge to Angola's desert and escarpment, the travelling between destinations is part of the experience.

Coast & Desert

Flamingo Coast, Vanessa, Doodsakker and Foz do Cunene put the Atlantic at the heart of the journey.

Remote Travel

Convoy support and practical route decisions are part of travelling through this remote landscape.

Highlands & Interior

Iona, Lake Arco, Serra da Leba and Tundavala make the route itself part of the experience.
